we stand up for all migrants

Being a trustee at MRN

Trustees play a key role at the Migrants' Rights Network (MRN) to help us achieve our vision of a more just society for migrants a reality and ensure MRN remains a dynamic and influential organisation that stands with all migrants in their fight for rights and justice.

As a trustee, you are instrumental in ensuring that MRN is achieving its objectives and purpose, and it is complying with its governing document and other legal requirements. Trustees are key to developing and delivering the strategy that will help drive the organisation forward.

We are looking for one trustee with a fundraising skill set (corporate or major donors) to join the MRN board. We particularly want someone with the lived experience of migration and/or refugee policies, so we can remain a majority lived experience led organisation.

Who we are

The Migrants' Rights Network is a UK charity that stands in solidarity with all migrants in their fights for rights and justice. We co-curate campaigns using anti-oppression practices to create transformational change, extending beyond the individual impact on migrants' lives, to tackle oppression at its source.

We believe everyone has the right to live a dignified life in a society free from all forms of oppression and discrimination.

MRN's vision is a society in which:

- People should be free to move because migration is and has always been an integral part of the human experience.
- Everyone, including all migrants, should live in a society which is free from all forms of oppression and discrimination.
- Nobody's access to safety, rights and security should be determined by their immigration status.

To achieve this, we build relationships with grassroots, migrant-led organisations to understand the issues that are important to them and how we can work together to achieve immediate and transformational change.

We believe it is not enough to reform structures and systems which are foundationally discriminatory. We are calling for a complete overhaul, and for people with lived experience to lead that change.

We particularly focus on issues that are less notable or publicly palatable, and can be overlooked. We do this to ensure that all migrant groups and communities that are seldom heard have access to platforms, support and resources to advocate for themselves and achieve change.

Our work takes many forms, but includes:

- Using our platform to raise awareness of pressing issues amongst politicians and policy makers, and in the media.
- Working with individuals and/or organisations to build campaigns and links with legal experts in order to pursue strategic litigation.
- Building an evidence-base for change by co-curating with affected migrants to inform our work and the work of others, to better understand the issues.

- Promoting partnership and collaboration between different causes and campaigns, to enable information and resource sharing.
- Informing migrant communities on their rights through our tailored resources and training.
- Developing alternative narratives to counter harmful rhetoric and narratives around migration through informative and creative campaigns.

Values

- Migrant-centred

We place at the heart of our work the experiences and perspectives of migrants to ensure we are accountable to those impacted by immigration and wider policies and practices.

- Equity for all migrants

We work for the rights and justice of all migrants, and focus on issues that are side-lined or underrepresented.

- Collaboration

We team up with migrants, grassroots organisations, activists, lawyers and academics to oppose hostile and unfair policies, tackle negative media narratives and campaign for transformational change.

- Intersectional

We approach and inform our work with the understanding that people will experience multiple interconnected forms of oppression, where immigration status/migration experience is but one factor.

- Leadership

We strive to be daring, determined and speak ‘truth to power’ to obtain justice and equality for migrants. We also recognise that where we hold power, we must be held to account by those affected by immigration systems.

- Solidarity

We build the power of those affected by the immigration system and work in alliances to create movements which strengthen efforts to further the rights of all migrants.

How will we achieve this?

MRN will maintain its core principles to:

- Take a flexible, agile and adaptive approach to every issue
- Redistribute resources, access, information, knowledge and space to migrants and grassroots organisations.
- Embed and practise our values and work in an inclusive and accessible way.
- Be led by the opinions, views and experiences of migrants and grassroots organisations, and be willing to be challenged ourselves.
- Put ourselves on the frontline for migrants and grassroots groups, including intervening in legal challenges on behalf of affected communities.
- Challenge the status quo so that MRN can always think from a radical perspective.
- Recognise the power and privilege that MRN holds and aim to redistribute that where possible, acknowledging and respecting the expertise and lived experience of others.
- Recognise that charities and NGOs can easily become ‘part of the problem’ when they fall into the trap of competing for resources, platforms and funding. MRN believes that we are stronger together and strives to cultivate partnerships based on trust, solidarity and transparency.
- Tackle oppression at its source through transformational change, to achieve justice for all migrants.

The network

We bring people together in order to share our collective resources and expertise, and to build solidarity between movements, campaigns and communities.

While we are not a formal network, we work to establish and strengthen connections. Whether that is making links between the race equality sector and the migrants' rights sector, or between an individual and a legal expert who may be able to take on their case. We believe it is through building bonds between people that we have the greatest opportunity to achieve transformational change.

Our priorities

Immigration remains a contentious issue, and is the easy scapegoat for politicians and the media alike. Conversations about immigration, migrants and refugees have intensified for several reasons, enabling politicians to be seen to be 'tougher' on immigration. This 'toughness' has led to an acceleration of policies and legislation to make the lives of some migrants and refugees more complicated and to make it more difficult for them to make the UK their home.

Migration is not a crime, and we will continue our fight for the rights and justice for all migrants. We will particularly work on issues and affected communities that are overlooked and to shift the narratives around migration. We are focusing on the objectives in our new strategy 2022-2025 to:

- Change- We will focus on the systemic 'change' needed for migrants to thrive in our society. We will remain reactive but we must start to become proactive and pre-emptive to imagine our vision in practice.
- Strengthen- For change to take place, we must ensure that migrants are their own 'change-makers'. This means ensuring that those with lived experience of migration and being a migrant in the UK are front and centre of MRN's campaigns and activities.
- Defy- We are moving past the point of challenging narratives, and want to delve deeper into creating new and inclusive narratives that are then reflected and boosted by others.

Our board

MRN is a registered charity and a company limited by guarantee. We have a Memorandum and Articles of Association as our governing document, and are currently governed by:

- Sainga Tony- Chair
- Dr Rakhi Rashmi- Vice-Chair
- Edith Yembra- Treasurer
- Eduardo Lopes- Secretary to the board
- Nick Sigler
- Michael Ahanchian
- Dagmar Myslinska
- Joanna Knight
- Michael Raff
